

QUALITIES OF A GOOD ORGANIZER

- Effective organizers are good at their jobs and respected by the people they work with.
- They have the trust of their co-workers. Their opinions carry weight. When they offer advice, people listen.
- The best organizers are motivated by a strong sense of justice and clear principles.
- They're responsible, honest, and compassionate.
- They're confident, even courageous.
- Organizers must be good listeners. They know you don't have to be the most vocal to have the biggest impact.
- They bring people together, welcoming new co-workers on the job and looking for ways to involve every member.
- Organizers move people to collective action. They don't just solve problems alone—they equip their co-workers to solve problems together.
- They put the interests of the group first, ahead of their individual concerns.
- They don't operate as lone rangers. They respect group decisions.
- Good organizers are knowledgeable about their contract, but not afraid to admit when they don't know the answer.
- They can stay cool under pressure and handle stress and conflict.
- They're willing to stand up to management—and they can inspire others to stand up for themselves as well.
