It's bigger than one workplace. Budget-cutting politicians and greedy corporations in California are pushing a coordinated agenda. We'll need unity to fight back and win.

More than 300 rank-and-file leaders and organizers are coming together April 6 to build skills and share strategies to unite and fight back.

Speakers include Alameda County Labor Council Executive Secretary Treasurer Liz Ortega, UTLA leader Karla Griego and Oakland teachers and a UNITE HERE Local 2 Marriott hotel striker reporting back on their recent strikes. More details soon.

WORKSHOPS WILL INCLUDE:

- Labor Notes Secrets of a Successful Organizer Three-Workshop Track
- Assertive Grievance Handling
- Contract Campaigns That Win
- Strikes
- Organizing In Open Shop America

Spanish language interpretation will be provided. Childcare is also available upon request. Meeting space is wheelchair accessible. If you need special accommodations, let us know.
