

2018 New York City Labor Notes

Troublemakers School

September 29, 9:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m. ♦ James Baldwin High School

8:30 - 9:00 a.m. Registration (coffee and light snacks)

Opening Plenary 9:00 - 10:00 a.m.

Movement of Rank-and-file Educators
Teamsters for a Democratic Union
Chair: Alexandra Bradbury, Labor Notes

Morning Workshops: 10:15 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

(3rd floor, see over for details)

1. Secrets of a Successful Organizer: Beating Apathy
2. Secrets of a Successful Organizer:
Assembling Your Dream Team
3. Secrets of a Successful Organizer:
Turning an Issue into a Campaign
4. Runaway Inequality:
How Does Financial Strip-Mining Affect Us?
5. Assertive Grievance Handling
6. Defending Immigrant Workers and Communities
7. The Militant History of New York City's Public Sector Unions
8. Race and Labor: Let's Talk About It
9. Researching Your Employer

12:00 - 1:30 p.m. Lunch (provided, in cafeteria, 6th floor)

Afternoon Workshops: 1:30 - 3:15 p.m.

(3rd floor, see over for details)

1. Secrets of a Successful Organizer: Beating Apathy
2. Secrets of a Successful Organizer:
Assembling Your Dream Team
3. Secrets of a Successful Organizer:
Turning an Issue into a Campaign
4. Runaway Inequality:
Institutional Racism Helps the 1% Stay in Power
5. Legal Rights of Union Stewards
6. Direct Action
7. Fighting the Lean Machine
8. Organizing Under Janus
9. Building a Winning Contract Campaign

Closing Plenary 3:15 - 4:00 p.m.

New York Taxi Workers Alliance
Count Me In
Chair: Samantha Winslow, Labor Notes

Afterwards: Social Hour at Peter McManus, NW Corner of 19th Street)

