

Labor Notes presents

Puget Sound Troublemakers School 2015

Let's put some movement back in the labor movement!

Saturday, September 12
9 a.m - 4 p.m.

WA Labor Education & Research Center,
South Seattle College, Georgetown Campus,
6737 Corson Avenue South, Seattle

$20, lunch included

Supporting organizations:

- * Washington State Labor Council, AFL-CIO
 - * AFSCME Council 28
 - * Fire Fighters (IAFF) 7th District
 - * Letter Carriers (NALC) Branch 79
 - * Machinists (IAM) Local 751
 - * PASS WA3
 - * SEIU Local 6
 - * SPEEA, IFPTE Local 2001
 - * Transit Riders Union
 - * UAW Local 4121
 - * WPEA/UFCW Local 365
 - * WA Labor Education and Research Center
 - * WA Young Emerging Labor Leaders
 - * WFSE Local 1488
- ...and more to come!

Union members, shop stewards, and activists are coming together to hone our skills, talk strategy, build solidarity, and recharge.

Workshops and Panels:

- ▶ Beating Apathy
- ▶ Secrets of a Successful Organizer
- ▶ Preparing for Public Sector 'Right to Work'
- ▶ Contract Campaigns That Win
- ▶ Strong Labor-Community Alliances
- ▶ Beyond Grievances: Action on the Job
- ▶ ...and much more.

Featuring an Emerging Leaders track, "Leading from the Margins: Sustaining Ourselves and Building the Labor Movement," presented by the Labor Center at South Seattle College and WA YELL.

Register at labornotes.org/pugetsound

Low-income/student/unemployed rate $10. For more info or to get involved, contact Alexandra Bradbury, 718-284-4144, al@labornotes.org.